ABOUT MICHAEL

Michael is a commercial barrister who accepts briefs to appear in all jurisdictions. With recognised expertise in migration law, he also specializes in administrative and public law. In addition, Michael has extensive experience in wills and estates matters, frequently appearing in the Supreme Court of New South Wales across a broad spectrum of equity and commercial proceedings.

Michael is a highly skilled and technically proficient barrister with a proven track record of delivering robust legal advocacy and advice across complex matters. Known for blending meticulous attention to detail with a personable and approachable style, Michael excels at building trust and maintaining strong client relationships.

Prior to being called to the bar in 2022, Michael worked in a range of legal academic roles at the University of Technology Sydney, Western Sydney University, and ITAS Southern Cross University.
